

Think "Green" with Sustainable Forests

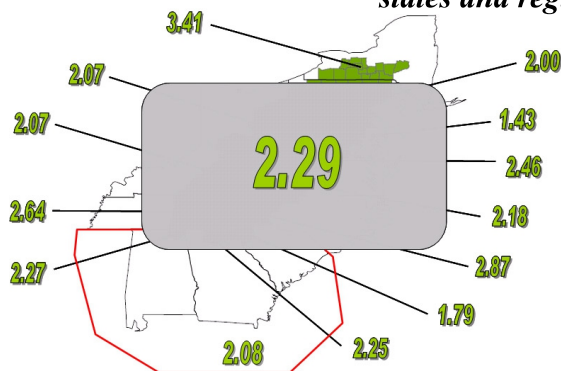

The majority of the wood Colorado Heirloom, Inc. uses for manufacturing comes from the Appalachian Mountains and the Cascade Mountains. Both mountain ranges have been Verified as Sustainable. There is actually more harvestable lumber today than there was 100 years ago.

The Appalachian Hardwood Forest grows: Oak, Maple, Cherry, Poplar, Walnut, Ash, Beech, Birch, Hickory & Basswood. For every tree that is harvested in the 344 county Appalachain Region, 2.29 more trees are growing. This research was released by the U.S. Forest Service.

The growth to removal ratio for these states and region.
